Teaching to make a difference.

Professional Learning workshops that equip teachers to confidently teach Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander perspectives.

These two-day workshops are for Foundation-Year 6 classroom teachers and Year 7-10 English and HASS teachers who want to know how to incorporate Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander perspectives in the classroom.

This workshop will:

- Deepen your understanding of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples, histories, cultures and current contexts.
- Increase your confidence to embed Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander perspectives in curriculum.
- Specifically address the Australian Curriculum Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cross-curriculum priority and AITSL Teacher Standard 2.4.

australianstogether.org.au
“Knowledge is power. The more you know the more you are able to teach.”
Laura Logan Year 5 Teacher/PYP Coordinator.

Outline of workshop

Day 1 - Learn about:

> The relationship between culture and identity
> History, geography, culture and policies since European contact in Australia
> The ongoing impact of colonisation

Day 2 - Plan curriculum:

> Connect Indigenous perspectives to the Australian Curriculum
> Be supported to develop a unit of work embedding Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander perspectives
> Investigate a range of authentic education resources

Location and dates:

Adelaide: 23-24 May 2019
Perth: 19-20 August 2019
Sydney: 2-3 September 2019
Melbourne: 10-11 September 2019

Cost:

$495 (incl GST) per participant. Morning tea, lunch and materials provided.

Locations and Registration details at australianstogether.org.au/education/professional-learning

For more information contact Australians Together
08 7073 6499 | education@australianstogether.org.au